

CONGRATULATIONS!

The Hancock Chamber is pleased to announce the results from the Election of Directors to the Hancock Chamber Board for the three-year term beginning January 2022.

Jason Farve, Area Manager – West, Mississippi Power Company

Jason Farve is currently an Area Manager-West for Mississippi Power's Coast Division, providing leadership to a team responsible for engineering, operations, external affairs, and community development for Pearl River, Hancock, and Harrison counties. Jason spent the first 12 years of his career at Coast Electric Power Association. In 2013 Jason began his career at the Southern Company learning from Georgia Power, Gulf Power and Mississippi Power in various roles. He attended St. Stanislaus College, Pearl River Community College and earned a Bachelors in Business Management from Southern New Hampshire University. He is a board member for the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, INFINITY Science Center, Partners for Stennis & Michoud, CASA of Hancock County, and Mississippi Coastal Plains Land Trust. He is also a member of multiple Rotary Clubs, Pass Christian Main Street, and the American Association of Blacks in Energy. He is a member of the Leadership Hancock Class.

Marcus Ladner, Agency Manager, Farm Bureau Insurance

Marcus began his professional career as an Insurance Agent in 2008 with Farm Bureau Insurance. In 2018, he became the Agency Manager, leading his team daily striving for professionalism and unparalleled customer service. A Hancock County native, he attended Hancock High School, Pearl River Community College, and the University of Southern Mississippi. Marcus is a past member of the Coast Electric Advisory Board and is a member and past president of the Hancock/Harrison County Cattlemen's Association. He is active in the community as coach for two basketball teams and serves on the fundraising, budget, and finance committees for Sacred Heart Church. Marcus is also active with the Chamber as a corporate investor and serves on the Chamber Board and Relocation Committee.

Nikki Moon, Proprietor, Bay Town Inn

Nikki re-opened the Bay Town Inn in 2013 and was named the Chamber's Business of the Year in 2014. Hosting hundreds of people every year from Stennis contractors to weddings to vacationers, the Inn provides a location for our visitors to easily shop and dine all within walking distance. Nikki served as the Chamber's representative on the Hancock County Tourism Board as a board member and President. She was appointed by the Hancock County Supervisors as one of three from our County to the Coastal Mississippi Board promoting tourism throughout our three counties. She is now serving her second term and was President of the Board in 2016. She loves the County, and the Bay and supports every possible effort to bring more visitors here - from her tenure as the 2015 Queen of the Mystic Krewe of the Seahorse to current Treasurer of Old Town Merchants Association, she is passionate about promoting "her town". This year, she again worked closely with Mayor Favre and the County to make Christmas in the Bay a month-long event for locals and visitors. The biggest honor was being elected 2019 Citizen of the Year by the members of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

Chanse Watson, Director, Stennis International Airport, Port & Harbor Commission

In his role as Director of Stennis International Airport for the Hancock County Port & Harbor Commission, Watson is responsible for planning, directing, and coordinating all functions of the Airport. Watson has worked in airports for over 10 years, most recently having served as Airport Manager of Louisiana Regional Airport in Gonzales, Louisiana, and Assistant Director of New Orleans Lakefront Airport from 2015 to 2018. During this time, he served as At-Large Member and Board Secretary for Louisiana Airport Manager's and Associates. A Louisiana native and a licensed pilot, Watson graduated from Louisiana Tech University with a Bachelor of Science in Aviation Management with a minor in Business Administration. Upon graduation, Watson interned for New Orleans International Airport, where he later worked as Senior Airport Operations Supervisor. Chanse recently completed the Certified Member program by the American Association of Airport Executives and was recently appointed as board member to the Mississippi Airports Association. He is currently a member of the Leadership Hancock Class.

Angelyn Treutel-Zeringue, SouthGroup Insurance – Gulf Coast

Angelyn is a CPA, Trusted Choice independent insurance agent, and President of SouthGroup Insurance. She is a two-term past president of the Hancock Chamber and served on the board of the Hancock Community Development Foundation, and "Community of Choice" team for Economic Development. She is past Treasurer of the Bay St Louis Rotary Club and Hancock Housing Resource Center. She attended Our Lady Academy, graduating as Valedictorian and graduated Cum Laude from Ole Miss with a Bachelor of Accountancy. Treutel-Zeringue is a prolific public speaker on technology, insurance, and business issues. She is passionate about serving her community through the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary International, the American Heart Association, United Way, Leadership Programs, Women Entrepreneur and STEM youth groups. She has been honored as Top Influencer, Volunteer of the Year, One-Coast Top Community Leader, the Jody Compretta Person of Passion, and elected by the Hancock Chamber of Citizen of the Year.

Tish H. Williams, Executive Director / Secretary

Hancock Chamber of Commerce

tish@hancockchamber.org

228-467-9048